Colorectal cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death in North Carolina, but finding cancer early means it may be easier to treat.

- Talk to your doctor about which screening option is best for you.
- Some screening tests are affordable and can be done at-home.