Retentions for COVID-Related Records

- The existence of a records series on the retention schedule does not require an agency to create that record.
- The retention periods apply to the record copy, whether it’s paper or born digital.

Items found in the Local Health Departments schedule

- COVID records should be treated like any other communicable disease records.

COVID contact tracing records (aka case interview forms)

Note: COVID-19 Community Team Outreach (CCTO) tool = proxy for NC EDSS

| COMMUNICABLE DISEASE OUTBREAK INVESTIGATION RECORDS | a) Enter all required information for cases and contacts into the North Carolina Electronic Disease Surveillance System (NC EDSS). Any documents that are part of the investigation should be attached to the corresponding outbreak event in NC EDSS for retention; NC EDSS records are not scheduled for expiration or destruction at this time. Paper records may be destroyed once pertinent information is entered into NC EDSS.
| b) Destroy records supporting the expenditure of federal funds passed through NC DHHS on a fiscal year basis when the DHHS Office of the Controller provides written guidance that records are released from all audits and other official actions.
| c) Destroy in office after 10 years paper records not entered into NC EDSS. |

COVID surveillance reports

| COMMUNICABLE DISEASE REPORTS | Part 1 and Part 2 communicable disease report forms, morbidity forms, supplemental surveillance forms, and other related records concerning reports of communicable diseases and information on patients’ risk factors. Also includes reports of viral hepatitis and sexually transmitted diseases (STDs)/sexually transmitted infections (STIs).

Transitory records (e.g., a contact tracer didn’t have access to CCTO and took notes on paper that were then entered into CCTO)

Q. What if I have forms designed and used solely to create, update, or modify records in an electronic medium?

A. If these records are not required for audit or legal purposes, they may be destroyed in office after completion of data entry and after all verification and quality control procedures. However, if the forms contain any analog components that are necessary to validate the information contained on them (e.g., a signature or notary’s seal), they should be retained according to the disposition instructions for the records series encompassing the forms’ function.

Reference value

All local government agencies and the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources agree that certain records series possess only brief administrative, fiscal, legal, research, and reference value. These records series have been designated by retention periods that allow these records to be destroyed when “reference value ends.” All local government agencies hereby agree that they will establish and enforce internal policies setting minimum retention periods for the records that Natural and Cultural Resources has scheduled with the disposition instruction “destroy when reference value ends.” If a local government agency does not establish internal policies and retention periods, the local government agency is not complying with the provisions of this retention schedule and is not authorized by the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources to destroy the records with the disposition instruction “destroy when reference value ends.”
